Inferior horse-Common, small plugs, 1206150; heavy work plugs, 200500; and 1508-The mule market was not without guppines, even though it was the last day of the week, but the receipts were made up of only a few small consignments, J and 5 head in a lot and all the other did not amount to anything of importance, nor change the conditions neveralling in the trade. The market during the week has been a remarkably strong one for the cohice grades of big mules, which have sold as high as at any time in the memory of extra forcing buyers to pay very liberal prices for them. Such however, was not the case with the medium and plain small kinds, which, in view of a relatively light Southern demand, have sold slowly, and at times with a well-defined degree of easiness.

New York Curb Market.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, March 7.—There was a decided improvement in the curb market to-day. Dealings were fairly active for a Saturday and the general tendency of prices was toward a higher level. Interest was centered again to a great extent in United States Steel Corporation new is, which displayed increased strength. At the opening efforts were inade to depress the price, which resulted in a decline of 4 to 88%, but in the subsequent dealings the price railed sharply to 88% on purchases by E. A. Chartrand, who took about $100,000 of the 250,000 coat in international Silver debenture is were a shade firmer, about $2,000 of them selling at 89%,200. Otherwise the trading in bonds was duit and without feature.

In stocks Greene Consolidated and Union Coppers attracted considerable attention by alvancing sharply. The former, after opening up 4 at 285, rose to 25, the highest price recorded in several days. About 4,000 shares were dealt in. Northern Securities was extremely duit, but the price rose substantially, Upward of 1,100 shares changed hands at from 105% to 185%, a gain of 5. Other strong issues were Standard oil, which advanced 5 points to 85 on purchases of small lots, and American Cycle preferred, which rose 3 points to 85 on purchases of small lots, and American Can preferred advanced ½ to 4345.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, March 7.—Live Poultry—The receipts for the week were 21 cars Western, 16 Southern and 8 Southwestern, with fully 5 more by express, against 27 cars last week. The Hebrew Purim fulls on next Friday, and as there will be a little extra demand for heavy fowls on that account receivers feel reasonably steady in their ideas on that hasls of present prices. Quotations unchanged.

Dressed Poultry—Receipts to-day 1,009 pkgs.; for the week 18,789 pkgs. With very little demand this morning and some accumulation on hand, the market closed outer at 18 on average best fowls. Invoices in transit are not heavy, and as the Hebrew Purim will attract considerable live stock to this market, receivers do not look for any great surplus of dressed. Quotations unchanged.
